

Ans 1 Testosterone.

Ans 2 Drug is a substance that can affect the brain, and behavior and badly affects health.

Ans 3 Menopause is a point in time 12 months after a woman's last period.

Ans 4 Menstruation is the regular discharge of blood and mucosal tissue from the inner of the uterus through the vagina.

Ans 5 Irregularity in menstruation can be caused by the medicines, exercising too much, having a low or high body weight, or not eating enough calories.

Ans 6 ~~Because~~ Some boys and girls have disproportionate body structure during adolescence because different growth rate of different body parts.

Ans 7 The endocrine hormones help control mood, growth and development, the way our organs work, metabolism and reproduction.

Date

Ans 8 Determination of cell ~~determined~~ is ~~den~~ determined by sex chromosomes if they are xx the child will be girl if ~~th~~ they are xy the child will be boy.

The small number of surviving tigers is cause of worry because it can result in the loss of genetic variability.