

30/12/21

Redhyansh

Page:

Date: / /

Abhyas Science Test.

1 Testosterone.

2 Drugs are substance that change a person mental or physical state. They can affect the way your brain works, how you feel and behave, your understanding and sense. The effects of drugs are different for each person and drug.

3 Menopause - The period in a woman's life (Typically between) the ages of 45 and 50.

4 Menstruation, or period, is normal vaginal bleeding that occur as part of a woman's monthly cycle. Every month, your body prepares for pregnancy. If no pregnancy occur, the uterus. The menstrual body is partly blood and.

5 When xy not go is ova then egg crack and menstruation starts.

6. Some boys and girls have disproportionate body parts during adolescence because of different growth rate of different body parts.

7. Endocrine glands release hormones into bloodstream. Endocrine hormone help in control mood, growth and development.

8. Men determine the sex of a baby depending on whether their sperm is carrying an X or Y chromosome. An X chromosome combines with the mother's X chromosome to make a baby girl (XX) and a Y chromosome will combine with the mother to make a boy (XY).

The small numbers of surviving tigers is cause of worry because it can result in the loss of genetic variability.

9. Adam's apple - Larynx in boys is called Adam apple.

Secondary sexual character - next

Differ in size between.

|| If sperm containing the Y chromosome fertilizes egg, then the diploid zygote formed after fertilization grows into a male child. The sex of child depends on the type of sperm fertilizing the egg and father is responsible.