

2. Ques → Define System Software in detail

Ans → System Software

Genral Computer made with two categories Hardware and software. Software is enable the hardware to perform all instructions and perform set of instructions. The System Software has two types Software application software and system software. Here, we know about the system software. A System Software is the software which is already available in the system. we don't need to installed it. Like application software. For example: Android is an example of the system software. because it is already available in the system.

3. Ques → Differentiate between application software and system software

Ans →

basis	Application Software	System Software
1. Installation Meaning	The application Software is not pre installed user have to installed it	System Software is pre-installed.

2. Type	The application software is a type of software	System Software is also a type of software
3. Expensive	The application software is not pre-installed as it is expensive task	The System Software is pre-installed it is not expensive task
4. Example	Tally ERP9	Android

Ques What do you mean by the output devices, Explain any 2 devices in detail.

Ans Output devices
 output devices is the type of hardware. we can see than and any one can touch it. they perform the task of giving us output. like printer. output through the output devices we can give the input to the computer like from keyboard.

① Keyboard

Keyboard is an output device ^{from} which help we can give our own data to the computer and it give us output through the printer.

② Printer

Printer is also a output device we can see and touch it. it can give us output with on the basis of the command.