

24/9/22

Ques 1) Define computer Memory.
→ A computer memory is a main element of a computer system. It stores data and instruction according to the system on the basis of extended period of time or permanent and temporary. It also relates to other storage elements on temporary and permanent basis of time.

Ques 2) What are the basic functions of memory?
→ It stores data on temporary and permanent basis.

- It works according to the memory system.

Ques 3) Explain some characteristics of primary memory?
→ primary memory is the main and permanent memory. It access from (RAM) and (ROM) Read only memory. It use for storing memories for a long term.