

Test

Abhay
18 Sep 2023
30 min
15 marks

① Computer generation. This long period is often conveniently divided into the subsequent phases called Computer generations. Before generation of computers we use calculators, spreadsheets, and computer algebra systems.

First generation Computers (1940-1956)

The technology behind the primary generation computers was fragile glass device which was called vacuum tube. These computers were very hard and heavy and really large. ENIAC, EDVAC, UNIVAC

② digital analog computer: Digital analog computer that uses continuous signal to process is called an analog computer. A computer that uses a discrete signal for its operation is called a digital analog computer.

③ five computer generations.

1. 1950 - 1960
2. 1960 - 1970
3. 1970 - Present
4. Present - Future

Second generation to third, "
fourth, " fifth, "